Dear Families

We have made it to the end of another incredibly busy half term with so much to be proud of and to celebrate. It was lovely to see so many of you at Collective Worship this morning, as Kendrick reminded us in his reflection about counting our blessings. In the busyness of each half term, it is sometimes easy to forget to count our blessings for the things in our lives, no matter how big or small. For us as a school community we recognise the hard work of everybody who plays their part in making Tintwistle the special place that it is. I have been delighted with the learning going on in school, the wider opportunities from music and sporting events, and the amazing way everyone is committed to helping one another flourish.

As we look ahead to the final summer term there will be a lot going on, so do keep an eye on newsletters, email updates and text messages, as we have a number of school trips, a sports week, leavers related assemblies and events, as well as an INSET day and closure for the General Election. With that in mind, I would like to reassure you that we have not made the decision to close for polling day lightly. We have been told we have to be a polling station, and the Governors and I are in agreement that it is not safe to have children on site at the same time as the general public, due to the safeguarding risk posed. Thank you for your understanding.

Next half term I will be sending out information about classes and staffing for next year, including inviting any new members of our Tintwistle family in for a transition day. During the first week back we are going to be sharing Miss Jones' books at Good News Gathering on Friday 7 June 2024, as we want to give each class the opportunity to share the wonderful work they have been completing across the curriculum.

Tonight is the Well Dressing at the top of Old Road. The children and staff have worked really hard on producing a D-Day inspired Well Dressing to link with this years' theme. Thank you to all who have been involved in making it, and I am sure the community will love to see you there for tonight's service from 7pm.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all of your support, and wish you a safe a peaceful half term; lets hope the sun makes an appearance!
